MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence
Agency
Washington, D. C.

OK

The Joint Chiefs of Staff have considered the recommendations of Colonel Edward G. Lansdale as forwarded by your memorandum of 20 May 1955. Commander in Chief, Pacific has been requested to forward to the Joint Chiefs his comments and recommendations as to the desirability and feasibility of undertaking this training program for South Vietnam.

You will be further advised as to the JCS final views as soon as CINCPAC's comments have been received and considered by the JCS.
